“Skills of the Sailor”

Not sure what to do on a dreary day this winter when your family is restless? Keep all hands busy learning traditional sailor’s skills. The Schaefer Exhibit Hall (50) will become the “Skills of the Sailor” activity center during the winter.

Choose from a range of hands-on activities and programs offered every day:

- Stay warm and busy stitching through canvas with a sailor’s palm, practicing knots or making a net. Take home your handiwork as a memento or as the start of a new hobby.
- Test your mind as you send coded messages across the room using signal flags.
- Get active and climb onto a yard or lift an anchor with a block & tackle.
- Roll and spin a cask to see why this old-fashioned method of moving cargo worked so well.

And there’s more! Chase away those winter blues by enjoying a special sea music performance or story led by one of our chantey singers. For all ages. No additional fee. All materials provided.
