ACCOMMODATIONS AND DINING
Built in Copenhagen, Denmark, in 1882, the Joseph Conrad is a square-rigger once used to train young Danish cadets for the merchant service. Today, permanently moored on our waterfront, the vessel is fitted out with bunks for 50 campers, flush toilets, showers, heat/AC, and electricity. Each camper is assigned a bunk of their own, and boys and girls sleep in separate compartments with their own bathrooms and showers. Campers eat three meals a day in our Galley Restaurant in a separate room designated for the camp. All meals are prepared by Coastal Gourmet, an award-winning catering company.

OUR STAFF AND COMMITMENT TO QUALITY
Our counselors, who live aboard the Conrad all summer alongside campers, love fostering the sense of growth and community that the Conrad camp inspires. Many of the counselors are past Conrad campers themselves and cannot wait to share the unique experience that Conrad camp offers with others. Counselors not only teach sailing in a fun and engaging way, they also know how to connect with campers and create a positive environment for youth development. We are licensed by the state of Connecticut and maintain the highest standards of safety and quality.

OUR BOATS
The core instructional boat at Conrad Camp is the D’Oyen Dhow (which is a multi-use sail and rowing boat originally developed as life boats during the Second World War. The boats are durable and simple to operate, which makes them ideal platforms for new sailors. The D’Oyens and their colorful sails are a summertime fixture on the Mystic River and have been the learning platform for thousands of sailors of all ages.

Joseph Conrad Overnight Sailing Camp is committed to educating campers about environmental sustainability. Our camp season is a registered Sailors for the Sea event and we strive to make camp as environmentally friendly as possible. Campers are urged to bring their own reusable water bottles—eliminating our use of plastic water bottles and straws. We also have reusable dinnerware, paperless registration, and more fuel efficient 4-stroke engines.

WHAT PARENTS AND CAMPERS ARE SAYING

“I can’t tell you enough about the great experience my boys had. It was the best 5 days of the summer thus far. Sailing through this beautiful July 4th with one of my best friends living just down the street from each other, you would know the unforgettable how much fun they had these five days. They made new friends and new memories. They even took their new summer blue condor sailboat for a ride.”

“It’s just so much fun here because the counselors are constantly encouraging you to do your best. It’s challenging but fun.”

“Going to the Joseph Conrad overnight sailing camp has changed my life forever. I met so many incredible people, people who I hope I will know for a lifetime.”

Many of the counselors are past Conrad campers themselves and cannot wait to share the unique experience that Conrad camp offers with others. Counselors not only teach sailing in a fun and engaging way, they also know how to connect with campers and create a positive environment for youth development. We are licensed by the state of Connecticut and maintain the highest standards of safety and quality.

OUR BOATS

The core instructional boat of Conrad Camp is the D’oyer Dhow, which is a multi-use sail and motorboat originally developed as lifeboats during the Second World War. The boats are durable and simple to operate, which makes them ideal sailing platforms for new sailors. The D’oyer Dhow and their colorful sails are a summertime fixture on the Mystic River and have been the learning platform for thousands of sailors of all ages.

ACCOMMODATIONS AND DINING
Built in Copenhagen, Denmark, in 1882, the Joseph Conrad is a square-rigger once used to train young Danish cadets for the merchant service. Today, permanently moored on our waterfront, the vessel is fitted out with bunks for 50 campers, flush toilets, showers, heat/AC, and electricity. Each camper is assigned a bunk of their own, and boys and girls sleep in separate compartments with their own bathrooms and showers. Campers will have three meals a day in our Galleon Restaurant, a separate room designed for the camp. All meals are prepared by Coastal Gourmet, an award-winning catering company.

The counselors were warm and understanding and went out of their way to make him feel comfortable. He came back from camp with a newfound love of the outdoors and a desire to continue sailing. We cannot wait to send him back next summer!”
